

Aims Community College Policy

Academic Affairs

Scholarly Ethics

As members of the academic community, faculty have a responsibility to model professional integrity and help their students discover or rediscover ethical principles and responsibilities, institutional values, and qualities of character that serve the common good. In treating our students and colleagues with kindness, fairness, honesty, and respect, faculty address their professional responsibilities as teachers, scholars, members of learned professions, and of the College community.

Faculty commitment to academic freedom and intellectual honesty, civil discourse and mutual respect, and avoidance of conflicts of interest and/or appearance of impropriety are supported by Aims institutional values.

The CEO/President shall implement and maintain procedures to carry out the intent of this policy.

Revised: March 19, 2019
 February 17, 2014

Adopted: June 20, 2007

Responsible Administrator: Vice President for Academic Affairs

Administratively renumbered from 2-150

Related Procedure 102-01 Classroom Use of Faculty Created Materials