

Aims Community College Policy
Student Engagement, Inclusion, and Success
Conflict of Interest for Financial Aid Professionals

Aims Community College is committed to managing potential conflicts of interest in situations involving student financial aid and to establish standards of conduct for employees with responsibility for student financial aid.

This Policy applies to all employees including those who work in the Financial Aid Office or agents of the College who have responsibilities related to education loans or other forms of student financial aid. This policy provides a means to ensure that both potential and actual conflicts of interest are reported and managed.

The President shall implement and maintain procedures to carry out the intent of this policy.
